

Senate of Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, PA

Appreciation

Wade E. Hampton II-Associate

August 30, 2004

Whereas, the Senate of Pennsylvania is pleased to honor associates who have strongly supported those who have successfully completed The Veterans Corporation, in partnership with The Massey Center for Business Innovation and Development at Robert Morris University, The Veterans Entrepreneurial Training FastTrac Program. This prestigious program is specifically designed to educate veterans about the fundamentals of starting and managing their own business. Those eligible are veterans who are considering starting a business and veterans who own a business and are considering enlarging it. The program is committed to educating and expanding veterans knowledge on staffing, marketing and finance. Experienced entrepreneurs were on hand to share their expertise and assist with creating plans for the participants; and

Whereas, Wade E. Hampton II, Associate, is being recognized on Monday, August 30, 2004 at the Duquesne Club in downtown Pittsburgh for supplying vital support to the veterans and The Veterans Entrepreneurial Training FastTrac Program. Wade is to be highly commended for encouraging veterans who are ultimately solidifying and prospering the economy of our great nation. Veterans are the backbone and foundation of the history of this country. Their unswerving and loyal devotion to their fellow citizens enables us to enjoy the freedoms we cherish. They served with valor on foreign shores and in our homeland, continually giving of themselves without regard to personal safety, to ensure the stars and stripes fly with pride under in an atmosphere of freedom and justice; and

Whereas, the Senate of Pennsylvania duly notes Wade E. Hampton II as a distinguished citizen of this great Commonwealth for continually supplying support for this vital Program; and

Now Therefore, a copy of this document, sponsored by State Senator Jane Clare Orie, 40th Senatorial District, is presented to Wade E. Hampton II with sincere appreciation for offering extraordinary support to the veterans and The Veterans Entrepreneurial Training FastTrac Program. May all participants and associates of the program be richly blessed with health, happiness, peace and continued success for many years to come.

Senator Jane C. Orie
